

Darren still top

NATIONAL sailor Darren Choy maintained his lead in the Byte CII class event at Byte Championship off the waters off the National Sailing Centre at East Coast Park yesterday.

Going into the penultimate day today, the 15-year-old, one of Singapore's four representatives at the upcoming Asian Youth Games, leads team-mate Terence Choo – who is part of SingaporeSailing's Youth Olympic Games training squad – by three points after nine races in the 12-race event.

In the Byte CII invitational event, Thailand's Supakon Pongwicchan holds a nine point lead over team-mate Jittiwa Thanawiwilat with three races left.

In the National 420 event, Singapore's Griselda Khng and Cecilia Low are in the lead with nine points from nine races.

In the Laser Radial event, Singapore's Victoria Chan is also at the head of the field with 11 points from nine races. All events end tomorrow. TAN YO-HINN
