Ang Wan Qi Sweeps 4 Awards

Paddler Ang Wan Qi is the big winner at this year's National Schools Colours Awards. Besides taking home her second Zone Award and second National Colours, she was named Best School Girl (Table Tennis) and also presented the Best Team Award (Girls) for her contributions as a member of the Singapore Schools Table Tennis Girls Team.

Wan Qi, a Singapore Youth Olympic Scholar who is on the International Baccalaureate pathway, was part of the Girls Team at the ASEAN Schools Games table tennis competition that struck gold. She also won two gold and one silver medals at the 2012 Southeast Asian Junior Table Tennis Championships.

Four other paddlers won Zone Awards and National Colours, awarded by the Singapore Schools Sports Council. The Singapore Sports School Table Tennis Academy also won one Team Award.

The annual presentation ceremony by the Singapore Schools Sports Council was held at Nanyang Polytechnic on 14 September 2012, but only selected representatives from each school were invited to participate in the ceremony.

To celebrate the recipients of 120 Zone Awards and 85 National Colours, and members of 25 Team Awards, Singapore Sports School held its own presentation ceremony on 27 September 2012. Olympian Derek Wong, who represented Singapore in Badminton at the London 2012 Olympic Games, was the guest-of-honour who presented the certificates to the award winners.

Synchronised swimmers Yap Yu Hui, Lee Meishuang and Natalie Chen were awarded Special Colours for having represented Singapore at the Jakarta-Palembang 2011 Southeast Asian Games and winning a clutch of silver and bronze medals.

The other student-athletes who were named the Best School Boy/Girl in their respective sport are Terry Hee (Badminton), Darren Ong (Bowling), Adam Swandi (Football) and Veronica Shanti Pereira (Track and Field).
