

Being House Proud

School Cleaning

Gail Chia

Executive, Strategic Communications

Singapore Sports School student-athletes cleaned and scrubbed their classrooms, training venues and other facilities around campus before school closed for the year. They learn to take pride in caring for the environment they reside in five days a week. Student-athletes performed a thorough sprucing of the school compound for the second time in the year on 9 November 2016.